- DePaul ranks second in D-I with 152 3-pointers this season... 10.1 3-pointers per game ranks fourth...set a school record with 19 triples against Syracuse on Nov. 27.... ranks fourth with 475 3-point attempts this season.

- DePaul has played five teams that were either ranked or receiving votes at the time of competition... since defeating Northwestern (Nov. 19), the Wildcats have been receiving votes in both national polls.
- DePaul has played an arduous schedule -- four ranked teams (Connecticut, Notre Dame, Baylor and Syracuse) while two other teams were/are receiving votes in the National Polls (Western Kentucky and Northwestern)... Temple was also receiving votes in both the national polls to start the season.
- According to the NCAA "toughest schedule" based on opponent's wins and losses DePaul has played the 18th toughest schedule.
- For the fourth straight season, DePaul was picked as the BIG EAST Preseason Favorite... Creighton and DePaul were chosen by the coaches as the co-favorites
- Jessica January was named the Preseason BIG EAST Player of the Year... Brooke Schulte joined DePaul on the preseason All-BIG EAST team.

Ashton Millender needs 29 points to reach the 500 career-point mark... a win would be Coach Doug Bruno's 626th at DePaul and his 666th as a head coach.

What is "DePaulBall": Given the named by broadcaster LaChina Robinson, "DePaulBall" is in-your-face swarming defense for 40 minutes which forces opponents to turn the ball over... finding the open player with an additional and precision pass... taking and making three pointers... playing fearless.

Finding the Open Player: DePaul ranks third in D-I with 21.3 assists per game... Baylor leads the nation averaging 24.3 dimes... Jessica January leads the BIG EAST and ranks 17th in D-I with 6.6 assists per game... five players -- January (86), Coleman (40), Campbell (38), Brooke Schulte (34) and Lauren Prochaska (31) all have more than 30 assists on the year.

Event Center at McCormick Square to be named Wintrust Arena

CHICAGO - (Nov. 16, 2016) CHICAGO - Chicago's leading community and corporate banking company Wintrust Financial Corporation, DePaul University, and the Metropolitan Pier and Exposition Authority (MPEA), announced that the new event center at McCormick Square will be called Wintrust Arena. The announcement finalizes a 15-year sponsorship agreement.

"As Chicago's Bank, we try to align with the iconic brands, organizations and institutions that make this city what it is, and DePaul and McCormick Place fit right into that," said Wintrust President & CEO Edward J. Wehmer. "Sponsoring DePaul's new arena is a great way to increase our presence in the city and help revitalize a historic Chicago district."

Upon completion in fall of 2017, Wintrust Arena will be home to DePaul men's and women's basketball and a prominent venue for concerts, sporting events, meetings, conventions, family-friendly shows and other major special events.

"DePaul is grateful to have found an ideal naming rights partner in Wintrust," said DePaul President Rev. Dennis H. Holschneider, C.M. "We are excited to see Wintrust Arena come to life over the next year and ultimately bring DePaul basketball back to Chicago."

Located at South Indiana Avenue and East Cermak Road, Wintrust Arena will anchor a lively entertainment district that includes new dining and entertainment options, hotels and vibrant streetscapes. The diverse programming and location of the new entertainment and sports venue will bring additional tourism for local businesses and ensure long-term economic growth for the neighboring communities.

"We are thrilled to welcome Wintrust to McCormick Square," said MPEA CEO Lori Healey. "Wintrust Arena will be a game-changer for our McCormick Square campus, allowing us to compete for new events and activities, creating new jobs and economic opportunities."

Wintrust has a deep commitment to Chicago's communities and is involved with many local chambers of commerce, charities, local government, school boards, sponsorships and community development.

Wintrust's philanthropic activities will expand with DePaul and include Wintrust Reads and Wintrust Field Trip Days in conjunction with Chicago Public Schools, and Wintrust Blankets Chicago which donates blankets to Chicago community-service organizations.

"Not only are we excited to partner with Wintrust on the naming rights, but its support of our community-service initiatives will benefit Chicago's youth and residents for years to come," said Jean Lenti Ponsetto, DePaul's athletics director. "Our goal when this process started was to find a Chicago-based partner that holds similar beliefs and values to the university, and we've accomplished that with Wintrust Arena."

Doug Bruno's powerful impact on the game he loves resonates across the entire spectrum of women's basketball as not only a highly successful college coach and staunch advocate of academics, but a passionate and undaunted promoter of the sport itself.

The former DePaul basketball player is heading into his 31st season as the head coach at his alma mater. Born and raised in Chicago and a product of Quigley South High School, Bruno has transformed DePaul women's basketball into a steadfast national power.

He has guided the Blue Demons to 14 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances---a feat only the NCAA elite of Connecticut, Notre Dame, Stanford, Tennessee and Oklahoma can also claim. Since his return in 1988, DePaul has won 598 games, competed in 21 NCAA Tournaments and four Sweet Sixteen's (2006, 2011, 2014, 2016). Bruno is the fourth active Division I head coach to reach the 600-win plateau. Bruno has won 665 games as a head coach, 625 as DePaul's leader.

Bruno has worked with athletes at the highest level through his involvement with USA Basketball. Since 2009, Bruno has been an assistant coach for the USA Women's Basketball National Team. He has helped lead the USA to FIBA World Championships in 2010 and 2014, and to its fifth and sixth straight Olympic gold in London in 2012 and again in Rio in 2016.

Bruno is the only coach to be recognized twice as USA Basketball's Developmental Coach of the Year after leading the U18 team in 2006 and the U19 team in 2007 to gold medals at the FIBA Americas and World Championships.

Bruno's influence on the game extends to the WNBA. He currently assists the Chicago Sky as a consultant to the professional franchise. Thirteen DePaul players have been drafted by the WNBA, and two are currently competing on active rosters---Keshia Hampton (Minnesota Lynx) and two-time WNBA Sixth Player of the Year Allie Quigley (Chicago Sky).

Academically, the Blue Demons have been ranked in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Academic Top 25 ten times since 2006 and finishing in the top eight in six of the last seven seasons which included a No. 2 finish in 2013. DePaul also earned the BIG EAST Team Academic Award in eight of the last nine seasons for having the top team GPA.

For all of his success, Bruno has been recognized as the conference Coach of the Year numerous times. In 2005, Bruno was selected as Conference USA's Coach of the Decade. The Illinois Basketball Coaches Association (IBCA) has named him Coach of the Year on 21 occasions.

Coach Bruno has been inducted into the DePaul Athletics Hall of Fame, the Chicagoland Sports Hall of Fame and the IBCA Hall of Fame. Bruno was also awarded the Leonardo Da Vinci Outstanding Achievement in Education Award by the Sons of Italy. He received the Carol Eckman Award in 2008, presented annually to an active WBCA coach who exemplifies Eckman's spirit, integrity and character through sportsmanship, commitment to the student-athlete, honesty, ethical behavior, courage and dedication to purpose.

A true leader among his peers, Bruno completed a two-year term as president of the WBCA beginning in the summer of 2007. He is the chairman of the WBCA/State Farm All-American Committee and is the East Regional representative for the NCAA Division I Tournament selection. He serves on the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame Committee, the Wade Trophy committee, represents District I on the WBCA Ethics Committee and has served as a conference captain.

For 40 years, Bruno has been involved with growing the game of women's basketball through his Doug Bruno Girls Basketball Camps. He has mentored over 75,000 young athletes, and many of his former campers have gone on to successful careers in every walk of life.

Prior to returning to DePaul in 1988, Bruno spent eight seasons as the associate men's head coach at Loyola Chicago under Gene Sullivan. The Ramblers posted 17 or more wins in four campaigns, including a pair of 20-win seasons, and won three Midwestern Collegiate Conference titles. The 1984-85 team went 27-6 and reached the NCAA Sweet 16.

Bruno spent two seasons as the head coach and director of player personnel for the Chicago Hustle of the Women's Basketball League (WBL). His first team (1978-79) won the league's Midwest Division and led the WBL in 11 offensive categories as well as attendance.

During the 1973-74 season, Bruno began his coaching career as an assistant varsity boys' basketball coach at Chicago's Francis Parker High School before becoming the head boys' varsity coach at St. Vincent de Paul High School (1974-75).

Bruno was a three-year letter winner for DePaul and Hall of Fame coach Ray Meyer after playing high school basketball at Quigley South for the legendary Dick Flaiz. Bruno was a two-year starter at DePaul and led the 1971-72 squad in assists. He received his B.A. in English in 1973, and later returned to earn his M.A. in English in 1988.

Doug and his wife Patty are the parents of six sons---Bryan, Kevin, David, Brendan, Patrick and Bradley--- and the proud grandparents of 10.
